A team of Police/Rajasthan Armed Constabulary (RAC) is deployed on duty during agitations. The agitation does not turn violent but the civil servant dies because of, say, heart failure, and not due to any attack by the crowd. The widow of such a civil servant shall not be entitled to the benefits under this chapter. However, where a team of civil servants including Police personnel are deployed to contain an agitation by extremists, etc., and death of any civil servant takes place as a result of violence during such an agitation, the widow of the deceased shall be entitled to the benefits under this chapter."

3. Substitution of rule 110.- The existing rule 110 of the said rules shall be substituted by the following, namely:-

"110. Applicability of Award.- Award at the rates specified in rule 111 shall be granted under this Chapter to the family of, -

- (a) . Police personnel (other than Indian Police Service Officer) and officials working as Executive Magistrate (other than All India Services Officers) who while in service are killed or die under any of the circumstances mentioned in clause (i) of rule 109;
- (b) Personnel of Preventive or Enforcement branches of Excise, Mining, Forest (other than Indian Forest Service Officers) and Transport Department who while in service are killed or die under the circumstance mentioned in clause (ii) of rule 109."

4. Substitution of rule 111. - The existing rule 111 of the said rules shall be substituted by the following, namely:-

"111. Amount of Award.- Subject to the other provisions of this Chapter, the amount of Award and concessions admissible under this Chapter shall be as follows:-

12/5/12-

- (i) Death Gratuity as admissible under Chapter V-B of these rules.
- (ii) If the Government servant is survived by the widow/widower, she/he shall be entitled to family pension equal to the emoluments last drawn by the deceased Government servant. The said family pension shall be payable upto the date when the deceased would have attained the age of superannuation had he survived or her / his remarriage whichever is earlier, thereafter normal family pension as per Chapter V-C of these rules shall be payable. In case the widow/widower got married afterwards, normal family pension shall be discontinued.
- (iii) In the case of Government servants, who expired before 01.01.2006, the corresponding revised pay shall be determined in the Rajasthan Civil Services (Revised Pay) Rules, 2008 on notional basis in the pay scale rules revised from time to time on the basis of last pay actually drawn in the respective pay scale of the post held by the deceased Government servant and thereafter revised family pension shall be allowed as per clause (ii) above.
- (iv) Children of the deceased shall be entitled to the facility of free education in Government Schools and Colleges within the Rajasthan State, to the same extent as permissible to the children of low paid Government Servants, according to rules thereon.
- (v) The family of the deceased shall be paid a sum of Rs. 10,000 for meeting expenses on the funeral rites of the deceased Government servant.
- (vi) In the event of remarriage/ death of the widow/widower, as the case may be, the family pension shall be allowed to the eligible other member of family at the normal rates of family pension on the conditions laid down under Chapter V-C of these rules."

5. Amendment of rule 114.- In sub-rule (2) of rule 114 of the said rules,-

- (i) for the existing punctuation mark "." appearing at the end of clause (v), the punctuation mark " ; " shall be substituted.
