CLARIFICATION

Sub: Fixation of pay under Rule 26A of Rajasthan Service Rules on promotion through review DPC in the subsequent years.

A question has been raised for clarification whether the payment made to a Government Servant on promotion through DPC during the period from the date of earlier promotion to the date of subsequent promotion through review DPC from the later year(s) is recoverable or not?

Accordingly, the matter has been considered and it is clarified that since the concerned employee has actually performed the duties of the higher post before his subsequent promotion in review DPC from the later year(s), as such, the payment already made of the higher post shall not be recoverable.

However, it is also clarified that fixation of pay under Rule 26A of Rajasthan Service Rules on subsequent promotion through review DPC from the later year(s) shall be made with reference to the pay of the lower post admissible immediately before the date of promotion through review DPC.
